Police Fire On Shoplifter At Stanford Walmart

By Ted Cox
tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

An incident at the Stanford Walmart, the local grocery for many Garrard residents, resulted in a man being flown to University of Kentucky Chandler Hospital after a shootout with a Stanford police officer.

The initial investigation revealed that a Walmart Loss Prevention Employee had detained a suspected shoplifter when the suspect brandished a firearm and fled the store.

Stanford Police Officer Tim Morris, who was responding to the scene, observed the suspect in the parking lot and was fired on prior to exiting his vehicle.

Old Garrard Courthouse To Undergo Renovations

By Ted Cox
tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

The fiscal court passed a measure that will advertise for bids on renovations to the old Garrard County Courthouse following the relocation of the Property Value Administrators office.

“The courthouse has some fairly substantial issues that are going to need to be addressed,” Judge Executive John Wilson said. “We need to modernize.”

The building has undergone significant wear and tear since any prior renovations in the mid-70s, and with the newly constructed $11.8 million judicial center open next door, the age of the structure is all the more apparent.

Plans may also make changes that would make the building more energy efficient and therefore less costly to run on a monthly basis, requiring less taxpayer dollars from the general fund to be paid to utilities.

The annex, former office space for the circuit clerk, has been vacated. The PVA will move in to that area.

Renovations to the upstairs have already begun, which

Lane Pleads Guilty To Theft From County Clerk’s Office

By Ted Cox
tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

A former deputy in the Garrard County Clerk’s office, indicted by a grand jury for allegedly taking more than $10,000 from the office in 2010, pleaded guilty to those charges on Friday.

Elizabeth Lane of 867 Richmond Road Loop, who ran a write-in campaign for clerk the same year, pleaded guilty on one count of theft of more than $10,000 and eight of the 16 charged counts of “knowingly entering false, fraudulent, illegitimate or erroneous information into the automated vehicle registration and titling system” while working as a deputy clerk. Counts 2 through 8 were dismissed as part of her plea deal.

County Clerk Stacy May first became aware of inconsistencies in the weekly reports in June of 2010 and contacted auditors. The audit of the clerk’s office for 2009 was later released detailing the missing total of $19,961.

Lane was fired from her job working in May’s office on June 24, 2010 after what Lane called a forced confession recorded by May. May went on record as stating that an ongoing investigation began soon thereafter but added that the investigation prevented her from making any further comments on the matter.

“I know that I did not do what they said I did,” Lane told the Central Record following the charges. “I don’t claim to know who did. It is up to them to find that out. I just know that I didn’t do it.”

Though the audit doesn’t

Liquor Mart Off The Hook In Drunken Driving Case

By Pattie Cox

A motion for summary judgment for the defendants in a civil case that dates back to July of 2010 was heard on July 20 in Garrard Circuit Court. However only a portion of those named in the civil action taken by the family of a couple killed in a crash by a drunken driver was granted on August 13.

Liquor Mart, located on the south end of Lancaster in Pleasant Retreat Shopping Center, and its employees were exonerated when Judge Hunter Daughtrey granted summary judgment on all claims asserted against them by Joel Rowland, the son of Lavada and Joel Rowland, Berea, and brother of Bethany Leeann Rowland, a minor daughter of the couple killed when Brett Whittaker, now 29, Somerset, drove a vehicle while he was intoxicated and crashed into the Rowlands about two miles south of Lancaster killing the couple.

According to court records, the beer sold to Whittaker from Liquor Mart just prior to the accident on July 9, 2010, could not have

Safer Roads In Garrard Due To Safety Circuit Rider Program

By Ted Cox
tcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

It has been a year since Garrard County completed the work on two of the routes in which road safety audits were performed.

Two of the more hazardous roads in the county were selected for the Safety Circuit Rider for the Technology Transfer Program last August, which was designed to help make roads safer through the posting of signage.

The Safety Circuit Rider for the Technology Transfer Program uses crash data to locate high-incident sites along roadways and assist communities in finding low-cost roadway-safety improvements. The Safety Circuit Rider works with local governments to remove fixed objects such as trees, brush, stumps, etc. and to install signage per Manual On Uniform Traffic Control Device guidelines.

This free technical advice is helping communities across the state of Kentucky save lives every day.

“It is really very interesting. Though the results we have received so far are only from a one-year period, they are very positive,” Judge Executive John Wilson said.

On Fork Church Road, from 2005 to 2009 there were 19 crashes and 11 injuries. From August 15, 2011 to August 15, 2012, there were two crashes and one with injuries.

The average per year from 2005 to 2009 is 3.8 crashes per year. Two last year indicates a 47 percent reduction in crashes.

On Harmons Lick Road, from 2005 to 2009 there were 8 crashes and 3 had injuries. The average per year from 2005 to 2009 was 1.6 crashes per year. From August 1, 2011 to August 1, 2012, there were no crashes and no injuries.

The Safety Circuit Rider program is made possible through funding from the Federal Highway Administration - Kentucky in coordination with the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet.

“I would like to begin by stating that we are looking at a statistically small sample size of one year’s data,” Todd Morrison, P.E., with the Safety Circuit Rider with the Kentucky Transportation

Center Technology Transfer Program, said. “Please keep that in mind as you look at these numbers. A better comparison will be in 2016, five years from when the improvements were made.”

The economic value of the improvements is estimated at $14,517 per crash and comprehensive value of the improvements $1,094,528, according to Morrison.

“Again we have made a lot of assumptions and we are looking at a small data set, but what if we are half wrong?” Morrison added, stating that the results would still be marvelous at that rate.

While the free technical advice offered by the Safety Circuit Rider is available to every community across

Child Abuse Case To Go Before Grand Jury

By Ted Cox

The case in which a Lancaster couple was arrested in relation to the fractured skull of a 7-week-old infant is expected go before the grand jury next month.

The couple faces charges of assault in the first degree and wanton endangerment in the first degree.

Amanda Cole, 19, and Larry A. Delaney, 30, 109 S. Campbell St., were arrested earlier this month after police were called to the home of the child’s aunt, where an officer was shown the evidence of abuse.

Police Chief Rodney Kidd said that officer Allen Weston took note of bruising to the baby’s upper back, ribs and buttocks upon investigation at the home of the concerned family member.

The child was admitted to

Trip To The State Fair To See Garrard's Photographic Talent

POINTS EAST
By Ike Adams

If want to really feel proud of Kentucky, there is no better way to reinforce that sentiment than taking a trip to the Kentucky State Fair.

There was a period, lasting over several decades, in my life when the year would have felt incomplete if I had been unable to make a two or three day trip to The Fair. I've slept in the cattle show area with friends who were showing champion dairy or beef cattle. I've even entered roosters in the chicken crowing contest which runs for several days.

But I was much younger then. I gradually drifted into just making day trips and finally into not going every year. Until last Friday, I hadn't been to The Fair in five or six years so when we walked into the big West Hall foyer and immediately caught the familiar smell of hay and all the other scents that combine into that wonderful aroma of livestock in the barn, I felt a sense of déjà vu and warm emotion wash over me.

Loretta and I joined two of our Extension Agents and 6 of our friends and neighbors in a 12 passenger van early Friday morning for a trip that was pure Kentucky from beginning to end. Instead of the interstate, we took scenic U. S. 150 through Danville, Springfield and Bardstown both ways. Turns out the route is just as quick as the big road and infinitely more interesting and enjoyable.

First let me say that there is no way to take in everything in a single day trip. In fact, you can't much more than scratch the surface unless you have far more energy and endurance than yours truly. It's wise to set priorities about your particular interests, find out where they are located in the huge sprawl of Freedom Hall, Broadbent Arena and the rest of the Exposition Center and plan your route through the place accordingly.

My own and Loretta's special interest is all things 4-H, but most particularly, the photography exhibit. Since the late nineties we have organized and taught, along with a cadre of volunteers, a summer photography day camp for kids in Garrard County. We have seen numerous youngsters develop what will be a life-long love for photography. We've seen kids lacking self confidence literally come out of their shells when they discovered they had special talent and earned champion awards at the county fair. We believe that a few of our camp participants over the years will make careers in professional photography.

We've had numerous kids earn top recognition at the State Fair after winning at the county level but I knew that this year's group, which turned out to be a dozen girls between 11 and 14 years old, was going to be extra special. I've never been around a group of kids so totally focused on the task at hand, so eager to learn and so easy to teach.

I felt like the pied piper. I always have a couple or three kids who stick to me like glue throughout the camp but this year I had to divide my time among a very demanding dozen. It is such an absolute joy to work with youngsters who are excited and dead-set on learning. It is a thrill beyond description to watch them grasp and master new technique and concepts. And this year it seemed to be happening every ten minutes.

I'm Watching You

By Jimmy Naylor

I read in last week's paper
About the retirement of Stacy May
Guess she's gonna stay at home
And just be Grandma everyday.

Saw Sammy and Carlotta Durham
Walking up the hill on Buford Street
Bet they were going to the fountain
To splash and cool their feet.

The next time I saw them
They were headed east on Maple Street
Probably headed to the Grand early
To be assured a real good seat.

Town & Country Shoe Store
Is getting a new look everywhere
But nothing has been mentioned
About bringing back my chair.

Friday Night Lights is a TV hit
But Garrard will pass them soon

Cause we don't wait till dark
We burn them all afternoon.

And now here's a message
Coming from man's best friend
Jayden's dog hopes the Lions
Never score at home again.

I think he wants them to win
At least that I will assume
He doesn't mind the touchdowns
But he hates the following boom.

The mayor thought she heard an air raid
So she wanted to soften the jar
By putting two big pieces of foam
To cover the top of her car.

If you see a ghost in the cemetery
There's no need to turn and run
Just get yourself behind a tombstone
And yell out Goable get your gun.

Habitat News

Garrard County Habitat for Humanity remains are on stand-by at the 113 build site.

The prospective homeowner is busy painting. It takes some time to paint a two-bedroom home with three coats of paint. The kitchen cabinetry is waiting patiently at 84 Lumber and will be delivered as soon as the kitchen paint is complete. The flooring is already on site also waiting for the completion of paint. Then the remaining tasks of final electric, plumbing and HVAC will have us done for the year.

Henry Adam Byler and his assistant Nate are on hold for the driveway. He will have to decide how the small side porch will be ramped to the drive or if it is possible. The front porch is too high an elevation from the street to make a ramp possible there and will need one step and perhaps two.

We are encouraged from our funding agent, KHC, to make all homes sustainable living spaces, meaning that should a family ever need a handicap accessible home entry, it would already be in place. Ramps are not particularly harder to install than an ordinary sidewalk, just have be no greater a rise than one-inch per foot of length. So, a 10-foot ramp cannot have a rise in elevation of more than ten inches. A greater elevation must have a greater length. However, if a house is 30-feet from the street and the driveway is 20 feet long, leaving 10 feet for the ramp with the elevation greater than 30 inches (remember one inch per foot), the ramp will require a switch back of some sort, which is a greater problem, due to the space and greater expense.

Neither is welcome.

GCHFH has not been a recipient of the AHP grant from Federal Home Loan bank of Cincinnati but we still receive news of their grant program. This year they awarded a total of $29.9 million in subsidies to 33 members for 54 projects. This funding will create 3,287 units of affordable housing throughout Kentucky, Ohio and Tennessee. FHLB contributes 10 percent of their annual net profits to the grant program. We congratulate those who won the awards and try not to have sour grapes over them. The grant applications are very time consuming to complete and very disappointing when not fulfilled.

We did receive two awards and that was the major funding for the Mason Estates Project.

Please call Roberta Keefe at 859-548-2270 to help build.

Farmers Bank Donates To The Arts

By Jim Cox
jcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

Farmers Bank made a $500 contribution last Thursday to the Garrard County Arts Council to help in renovating the arts council's new site on Richmond Street in Lancaster.

"They are doing a lot of good work here with the building. I just think its great. It's local. It's grassroots," Paul Purcell of Farmers Bank said. "These folks are volunteering a lot of their time so we wanted to make a contribution and play a small part."

The money will go for dry-wall, insulation and other uses to remodel the building, Jean Turner, president of the arts council said.

"We guarantee it will go for a good use," she said.

One of the things Purcell

Also pictured is arts council members James Bushnell, Geri Trinler, Purcell, Jean Turner, Patricia Norton and Mitchell Hollis.

likes is that the Arts Council sent out an email asking for inexpensive materials like donations for a sheet of dry-wall or five gallons of dry-wall mud.

"I feel the money will be used as good as it can be used," he said. "It will be well spent."

"The project has been a real community project," Turner said, and she appreciates Farmers Bank and all who have donated.

She especially mentioned James Bushnell who leased the building on Richmond Street to the arts council for $1 per year.

Through this process an employee in the clerk's office was able to total 170 transaction alterations equalling more than $3,200 and deposits being reduced in order to match up. The same activity in 2010 lead to 717 more transaction alterations totalling $16,714.

Lane's guilty plea on Friday morning attaches a seven-year sentence for one count of theft of more than $10,000 and an additional seven-year sentence for eight of the 16 charged counts of knowingly entering false, fraudulent, illegitimate or erroneous information into the automated vehicle registration and titling system.

Lane has agreed to pay restitution in the amount of $19,961, $5,000 of which will be paid in a lump sum prior to sentencing.

The case will go before the grand jury on September 12. First-degree assault can be punishable by up to 20 years in prison in the state of Kentucky.
The 7-week-old was placed in the custody of the Department of Social Services and is expected to recover completely.

"I was just glad to have gotten out of Stanford when I did."

Kentucky State Police are currently still investigating the incident.
Detective Monty Owens is the investigating officer and was assisted at the scene by Sergeant Sonny Dunaway, Sergeant Chad Mills, Trooper David Fugate, Trooper Eric Taylor, Trooper Jason Carpenter, Trooper Frank Thornberry, Trooper Chris Damron, Trooper Joshua Chenault, Stanford Police Department, Stanford EMS.

Golf Course On Fire

It wasn't a hot golfer but more likely a hot cigarette butt that started a grass fire on Peninsula Golf Resort in northern Garrard County.
The Camp Dick Fire and Rescue Department was called out Tuesday afternoon to put out a grass fire that consumed about an acre.
The fire started in the ruff behind the par-three #4 hole. It appeared to have begun in the ruff and then spread out from there.
The wind blew the fire down the hill to the road where several lake houses are located.
Residents became concerned when they saw the flames rolling toward their homes and could hear the crackle of the fire.
They were very appreciative of the response of the Camp Dick Fire Department, which was able to extinguish the fire in about a hour.

Biggs

at about $15,000.
A public defender was appointed on August 13 and a jury trial scheduled for Oct. 4 at 8:30 a.m.
Biggs has charges in Lincoln and Pulaski counties and remains incarcerated in the Pulaski County Detention Center under $15,000 in cash bonds.
However he still has not been charged in the Casey County case and, according to Deputy Sheriff Freeman

Luttrell, he has denied any involvement.
Sheila Gregory, 42, Lancaster, claims that she was beaten badly by Biggs. Although she does not remember much due to the extent of the beating, she believes an argument between she and Biggs lead to the altercation.
Gregory said that she was choked and a club was used on her but the actual beating she does not recall. She doesn't even know how long she lay on the side of the road before she was found by a female passerby who called the authorities. Gregory was flown to the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington with injuries to her face and legs.

Gregory and three other friends had hitched a ride with Biggs in Boyle County, she said. He was going to take them to Kings Mountain where Gregory had planned to stay for a while. But instead they ended up in a field where she said they went to swim in a creek. The next thing she knew she was on the roadside being tended to.
"From the time I was beaten, I was blank," Gregory said in June. "I just don't know. Maybe they drugged me."

Luttrell said that all but one of the interviews has been completed. And he is still waiting on Gregory to release her medical records from the incident to he proceeds. Then he will present the evidence to the grand jury who must decide whether or not there is probable cause to bring charges against Biggs or anyone else that may have been involved.
Luttrell declined to release any other names.
Gregory could not be reached for further comment.

will house the new office of the judge executive. Those renovations, coming in at a total cost of $5,000, were insignificant enough to forgo the bidding process.
The court's vote did approve a bidding process for other renovations to the courthouse itself, including an expansion of the county-clerk office space and relocation of the Sheriff's Department office.
The cost of the renoventions is estimated at $50,000 to $70,000, though the actual figures cannot be determined until bids are returned.

The only issue left on the table by the court is whether or not the offices of the county attorney will also move to the annex, or whether they will continue to rent the office space currently used from Jeff Moss.
"Basically our issue is that renovating other portions of the annex to house the county attorney will cost more than $100,000," Wilson told the court during a special meeting Monday afternoon. "Originally we had talked about breaking this up into individual contracts, so we had some estimates made. We need to make some decisions."

The fiscal court did decide to hold off on the renovations to the annex, in favor of continuing to rent the current county-attorney space. The reno-tions would be much more extensive in order to meet the state requirements for county attorney offices. The current space rented was re-modeled with that purpose in mind.

The courthouse is also leaking from the clock tower and taking on a substantial amount of water. Also the south wall is taking on a substantial amount of water and it is causing some pretty substantial damage.

Mariachi's Mexican Restaurant Still A Part Of Suit

contributed to Whittaker's intoxication. The beer he purchased after spending about four hours at Mariachi's Mexican Restaurant in Lancaster drinking alcoholic beverages was still behind the seat. Although some of the cans of beer had been scattered due to the accident, it appeared none had been opened, according to one of the officer's deposition who was on the scene, Trooper Michael Keeton.

But others named in the civil suit filed in July 2011 remain as parties Joel Rowland holds responsible for his parents' death, THD Enterprises, LLC, dba Mariachi's, H & D Company LLC, Daniel Garcia, Thomas Garcia and Herlberto Garcia, the owners of the local restaurant.
The suit claims that Mariachi's employees "knew or should have reasonably known that [Whittaker] was already intoxicated," and that they "allowed, permitted and/or assisted [Whittaker's] exit from their business premises, while having knowledge of his intoxication and his intended operation of an automobile. . .the defendants knew or should have known that [Whittaker] was a risk to himself and to others on the highway," and they did not take "any steps to prevent the foreseeable accident that claimed the lives of [Joel Rowland's] parents."

Whittaker pleaded guilty to two counts of murder on July 19, 2011. He was sentenced the next month to 20 years on each count to run concurrently and is currently incarcerated in Green River Correctional Complex in Central City, Kentucky.
No hearing date has been set since the summary judgment decision was made on Aug. 13.

Cecil’s Pawn Shop Burglar Sentenced To 10 Years

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

Two of the three men involved in burglaries of local businesses last August have pleaded guilty to lesser charges and were sentenced this month.

Tyler Roberts, 21, entered his plea of guilty in a Jessamine County courtroom on July 30. His sentence of 10 years, handed out on August 10 in Garrard County by Judge Hunter Daugherty, on the charge of a convicted felon in possession of a firearm, will run concurrently with the other 11 charges to which he was sentenced five years. Roberts will also have to pay restitution upon his release from prison.

Most of the first-degree burglary and theft-by-unlawful-taking charges were amended down to third-degree complicity charges, along with a second-degree arson charge that was amended to complicity in the third-degree. Only one charge was dismissed, a convicted felon in possession of a firearm.

Jeremiah Gregory who was 18 at the time, was granted a five-year diversion, supervised for two years, on two of the three counts levied against him, first-degree theft-by-unlawful taking amended to third-degree complicity charges. The burglary charge was dismissed. Restitution, which will be determined in a hearing on Aug. 31, will be begin with $50 a month payments on Sept. 21.

The third defendant, Wood-ey Embry, 20, has not taken a deal and remains scheduled for trial on Sept. 17.

Roberts and Embry broke into Cecil’s Pawn Shop and

Cobb Motorsports on north US 27 on August 15, 2011, and took more than $500 worth of property from each business, including 40 firearms and large quantities of jewelry and coins from the pawn shop. Embry and Gregory were arrested on Aug. 17 and Roberts a couple days later when police spotted him driving a stolen car in Madison County that was loaded with weapons tracked back to the pawn shop. Roberts and Embry were also charged with arson and tampering with physical evidence when they burned a Nissan Altima they stole from DMB Automotive in Nicholasville around the same time. A video of Roberts using a piece of wood to break into the business confirmed the men’s identity.

Grew Marijuana Near Pig Pen

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

While responding to a domestic dispute, police found marijuana plants growing near a pig pen. The occupant of the home, Oren M.

Deaton, 37, 9886 Lexington Road, was arrested and charged with cultivating more than five marijuana plants.

According to the police report, a female also living in the home, April Rice, called police and when they arrived she steered them to the growing marijuana near the pig pen.

No assault charges were filed, according to the report. Deaton is not currently incarcerated.

Grand Jury Indicts 10

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

The Garrard County Grand Jury returned 10 indictments this month but also had to reschedule eight more cases for the September docket.

Joseph Smith, 44, 2167 Kennedy Bridge Road, is being held in the Lincoln County Detention Center under bond set at $50,000 with charges of first-degree wanton endangerment and cultivating more than five marijuana plants facing him.

According to the indictment, Smith fired a gun at another person that could have caused death or serious physical injury.

The incident places Smith at risk of forfeiting a diversion agreement for a similar case back in 2008 when he allegedly pointed a gun at another individual but did not fire it. That diversion would have concluded in November 2013. Neighbors verified for police at the time that Smith became angry when parties and loud music kept him awake at night. Smith and Jon White were charged with possession of drugs and paraphernalia and indicted in that case.

Smith’s arraignment is set for Aug. 31. Kentucky State Police Trooper Eric Taylor appeared before the grand jury as the Commonwealth’s witness.

According to the jail website, Smith has also been charged with fourth-degree assault in Lincoln County. Bond on that charge has been set at $1,000.

The owner of two Lancaster convenient stores, Usman (John) M. Chapra, 28, 4390 Clearwater Way #303, Lexington, has been directly indicted with eight counts of first-degree wanton endangerment, along with Carl W. McAllister, 40, 117 Dickerson Court.

According to Garrard County Deputy Sheriff James Napier, the men were drag racing on Camp Nelson Bridge on August 11 headed south into Garrard County when McAllister slammed into the back of a vehicle causing an accident that injured a woman inside. Several witnesses stopped to give statements about what they saw, including the fact that the two vehicles passed in and out of traffic at high rates of speed during the race.

The direct charges indicate that Chapra and McAllister “wantonly placed [eight people] at substantial risk of death or serious physical injury” by their actions.

Bail has been set at $2,500 each with arraignments scheduled for Aug. 31.

Robert Aldrich, 26, 402 Stanford Street, indicted in July on unrelated charges, was indicted again this month for wanton endangerment and fleeing or evading police, both first-degree charges. According to the indictment, Aldrich placed lives in danger when he fled from police in a motor vehicle on April 26. Chief Rodney Kidd appeared before the grand jury as the state’s witness and bail has been set at $5,000. July’s indictment stems from an incident on July 8 when Aldrich and Janey Cox allegedly stole a car and took it across state lines. They were located in Kansas.

Tasha Adams, 30, 220 Marksbury Ave., Apt. D2, faces a three-count direct indictment related to an incident on Nov. 3, 2011, when Adams allegedly drove a vehicle while she was intoxicated, wrecked and seriously injured three people in the process, one of which was her juvenile son. According to the investigating officer, Rick Shearer, Adams was traveling south on US 27 just south of Lancaster when she crossed into the path of an oncoming vehicle hitting the car head on. Toxicology reports revealed that Adams’ blood-alcohol level was well beyond the limit at .15 percent and that she has had several DUI charges. All of the victims were transported to Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville for treatment. Adams was arrested on Sunday and booked into the Lincoln County jail on Monday. Each of the assault charges is first degree and bail has been set at $10,000 in cash. A court appearance has been scheduled for Sept. 6 at 1 p.m.

A woman who fled from police on May 23 after allegedly attempting to run over her boyfriend’s former girlfriend with her car has been indicted on two counts.

Lakin Mulcahy, 40, 117 Dickerson Court, has been charged with wanton endangerment and fleeing or evading police, both first-degree charges. According to the arresting officer, Mulcahy’s assault on Samantha Denny was the result of an argument but Officer Rick Shearer didn’t catch her that night. He spotted her a couple of days later on the Public Square but she fled. Shearer caught her and her boyfriend, Derek Smith, on Old Davistown School Road when they ditched the vehicle and fled on foot. Smith has been charged with fourth-degree assault, a misdemeanor charge, related to the same incident. Mulcahy’s bond has been set at 10,000 in cash.

A two-count indictment has been levied against four Nicholasville men who allegedly intended to sell the methamphetamine they had in their possession on June 19. Jeremy Ramsey, 26, and Jason Ramsey, 26, of 212 Twin Acres, Jessie R. Adkins, 46, 817 Hickory Hill, and Jason H. Hensley, 145 Grinder Court, have each been charged with first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance and first-degree persistent felony offender. Each of the men has been convicted of felony offenses on at least two prior occasions. Bail has been set at $20,000 for each and arraignments scheduled for August 31.

The Commonwealth’s cases against Justin League, Ricky Boyd, Brandon Biggs, Spencer Toler, Crystal Getter, Frankie Mason, Steven Stiles and Alma Jean Singleton have all been rescheduled for the September docket. Case #12-F-00057 against Richard Fancote has been discharged due to the fact that the complaining witness did not appear within the 60 day period required since the case was referred to the grand jury.

The grand jury did not return an indictment against Justin League in case # 12-F-00083.

Cecil’s Pawn Shop Burglar Sentenced To 10 Years

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

Two of the three men involved in burglaries of local businesses last August have pleaded guilty to lesser charges and were sentenced this month.

Tyler Roberts, 21, entered his plea of guilty in a Jessamine County courtroom on July 30. His sentence of 10 years, handed out on August 10 in Garrard County by Judge Hunter Daugherty, on the charge of a convicted felon in possession of a firearm, will run concurrently with the other 11 charges to which he was sentenced five years. Roberts will also have to pay restitution upon his release from prison.

Most of the first-degree burglary and theft-by-unlawful-taking charges were amended down to third-degree complicity charges, along with a second-degree arson charge that was amended to complicity in the third-degree. Only one charge was dismissed, a convicted felon in possession of a firearm.

Jeremiah Gregory who was 18 at the time, was granted a five-year diversion, supervised for two years, on two of the three counts levied against him, first-degree theft-by-unlawful taking amended to third-degree complicity charges. The burglary charge was dismissed. Restitution, which will be determined in a hearing on Aug. 31, will be begin with $50 a month payments on Sept. 21.

The third defendant, Wood-ey Embry, 20, has not taken a deal and remains scheduled for trial on Sept. 17.

Roberts and Embry broke into Cecil’s Pawn Shop and

Cobb Motorsports on north US 27 on August 15, 2011, and took more than $500 worth of property from each business, including 40 firearms and large quantities of jewelry and coins from the pawn shop. Embry and Gregory were arrested on Aug. 17 and Roberts a couple days later when police spotted him driving a stolen car in Madison County that was loaded with weapons tracked back to the pawn shop. Roberts and Embry were also charged with arson and tampering with physical evidence when they burned a Nissan Altima they stole from DMB Automotive in Nicholasville around the same time. A video of Roberts using a piece of wood to break into the business confirmed the men’s identity.

Grew Marijuana Near Pig Pen

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

While responding to a domestic dispute, police found marijuana plants growing near a pig pen. The occupant of the home, Oren M.

Deaton, 37, 9886 Lexington Road, was arrested and charged with cultivating more than five marijuana plants.

According to the police report, a female also living in the home, April Rice, called police and when they arrived she steered them to the growing marijuana near the pig pen.

No assault charges were filed, according to the report. Deaton is not currently incarcerated.

Grand Jury Indicts 10

By Pattie Cox
pcox@garrardcentralrecord.com

The Garrard County Grand Jury returned 10 indictments this month but also had to reschedule eight more cases for the September docket.

Joseph Smith, 44, 2167 Kennedy Bridge Road, is being held in the Lincoln County Detention Center under bond set at $50,000 with charges of first-degree wanton endangerment and cultivating more than five marijuana plants facing him.

According to the indictment, Smith fired a gun at another person that could have caused death or serious physical injury.

The incident places Smith at risk of forfeiting a diversion agreement for a similar case back in 2008 when he allegedly pointed a gun at another individual but did not fire it. That diversion would have concluded in November 2013. Neighbors verified for police at the time that Smith became angry when parties and loud music kept him awake at night. Smith and Jon White were charged with possession of drugs and paraphernalia and indicted in that case.

Smith’s arraignment is set for Aug. 31. Kentucky State Police Trooper Eric Taylor appeared before the grand jury as the Commonwealth’s witness.

According to the jail website, Smith has also been charged with fourth-degree assault in Lincoln County. Bond on that charge has been set at $1,000.

The owner of two Lancaster convenient stores, Usman (John) M. Chapra, 28, 4390 Clearwater Way #303, Lexington, has been directly indicted with eight counts of first-degree wanton endangerment, along with Carl W. McAllister, 40, 117 Dickerson Court.

According to Garrard County Deputy Sheriff James Napier, the men were drag racing on Camp Nelson Bridge on August 11 headed south into Garrard County when McAllister slammed into the back of a vehicle causing an accident that injured a woman inside. Several witnesses stopped to give statements about what they saw, including the fact that the two vehicles passed in and out of traffic at high rates of speed during the race.

The direct charges indicate that Chapra and McAllister “wantonly placed [eight people] at substantial risk of death or serious physical injury” by their actions.

Bail has been set at $2,500 each with arraignments scheduled for Aug. 31.

Robert Aldrich, 26, 402 Stanford Street, indicted in July on unrelated charges, was indicted again this month for wanton endangerment and fleeing or evading police, both first-degree charges. According to the indictment, Aldrich placed lives in danger when he fled from police in a motor vehicle on April 26. Chief Rodney Kidd appeared before the grand jury as the state’s witness and bail has been set at $5,000. July’s indictment stems from an incident on July 8 when Aldrich and Janey Cox allegedly stole a car and took it across state lines. They were located in Kansas.

Tasha Adams, 30, 220 Marksbury Ave., Apt. D2, faces a three-count direct indictment related to an incident on Nov. 3, 2011, when Adams allegedly drove a vehicle while she was intoxicated, wrecked and seriously injured three people in the process, one of which was her juvenile son. According to the investigating officer, Rick Shearer, Adams was traveling south on US 27 just south of Lancaster when she crossed into the path of an oncoming vehicle hitting the car head on. Toxicology reports revealed that Adams’ blood-alcohol level was well beyond the limit at .15 percent and that she has had several DUI charges. All of the victims were transported to Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville for treatment. Adams was arrested on Sunday and booked into the Lincoln County jail on Monday. Each of the assault charges is first degree and bail has been set at $10,000 in cash. A court appearance has been scheduled for Sept. 6 at 1 p.m.

A woman who fled from police on May 23 after allegedly attempting to run over her boyfriend’s former girlfriend with her car has been indicted on two counts.

Lakin Mulcahy, 40, 117 Dickerson Court, has been charged with wanton endangerment and fleeing or evading police, both first-degree charges. According to the arresting officer, Mulcahy’s assault on Samantha Denny was the result of an argument but Officer Rick Shearer didn’t catch her that night. He spotted her a couple of days later on the Public Square but she fled. Shearer caught her and her boyfriend, Derek Smith, on Old Davistown School Road when they ditched the vehicle and fled on foot. Smith has been charged with fourth-degree assault, a misdemeanor charge, related to the same incident. Mulcahy’s bond has been set at 10,000 in cash.

A two-count indictment has been levied against four Nicholasville men who allegedly intended to sell the methamphetamine they had in their possession on June 19. Jeremy Ramsey, 26, and Jason Ramsey, 26, of 212 Twin Acres, Jessie R. Adkins, 46, 817 Hickory Hill, and Jason H. Hensley, 145 Grinder Court, have each been charged with first-degree trafficking in a controlled substance and first-degree persistent felony offender. Each of the men has been convicted of felony offenses on at least two prior occasions. Bail has been set at $20,000 for each and arraignments scheduled for August 31.

The Commonwealth’s cases against Justin League, Ricky Boyd, Brandon Biggs, Spencer Toler, Crystal Getter, Frankie Mason, Steven Stiles and Alma Jean Singleton have all been rescheduled for the September docket. Case #12-F-00057 against Richard Fancote has been discharged due to the fact that the complaining witness did not appear within the 60 day period required since the case was referred to the grand jury.

The grand jury did not return an indictment against Justin League in case # 12-F-00083.

Lions Slip Past Clay County 15-14 To Open Season

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

It was an offensive shoot-out a year ago when Garrard County defeated Clay County 40-38 in four overtimes in the season opening Hall of Fame Bowl. This year the defenses took over but the Golden Lions still managed to come out on top 15-14.

"It was another hard fought win against Clay County," Garrard coach Mark Sceneters said. "I am very proud of the heart and determination our young men showed especially in the third and fourth quarters."

Garrard had a good scoring opportunity late in the first quarter when the Lions drove the ball deep into Tiger territory for a first and goal at the Clay County 10 yard line but the Clay defense stiffened and Garrett Caudill's 28 yard field goal attempt was wide right.

After the missed field goal the Tigers mounted a drive into Golden Lion territory but coughed the ball up with Caudill recovering at the Garrard 37 yard line on the second play of the second period.

Neither team could generate any offense the rest of the half until Clay's Sam Carr got loose and scampered 88 yards down the Clay sideline for a touchdown with only 32.8 seconds to play in the half. The PAT kick failed sending the Tigers into the locker room with a 6-0 lead.

Garrard Volleyball Get First Win

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

The Garrard County volleyball team gave coach Dickie Gilbert his first win at the helm of the Lady Lion program last Thursday night with a 3-0 win over visiting district rival Danville.

"It's always great to get that first win," Gilbert said. "Our kids needed this. They should have won the other night (at Estill County). They are starting to learn. It's okay. I'm learning just like they are."

The Lady Lions jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead in game won behind the strong serving of senior Sam Price and went on the win 25-12.

With Gilbert using some different combination the Lady Lions trailed 16-9 at one point in game two but came back to win 25-21. Garrard took the deciding game 25-17.

"It's was a good district win," Gilbert said. "I thought we had a lot of kids that played well."

The Lady Lion junior varsity defeated the Lady Ads three games to one, winning 21-9, 21-14 10-21, 21-11.

Lady Lions Win One Of Four

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

The Garrard County volleyball team won one of four matches over the weekend in the McCreary Central Invitational.

The Lady Lions defeated

Somerset 2-1 in a hard fought match. Garrard won the first game 25-21, lost the second game by the same score and came back to beat the Lady Jumpers 25-20 in the deciding game.

Garrard's losses came to

Clinton County 2-0 (25-20, 25-20), the host Lady Raiders 2-0 (25-8, 25-14) and Wayne County 3-0 (25-19, 25-16, 25-14)

The Lady Lions stand at 2-6 on the season.

Lady Lions Fall To Berea

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

Berea's Sydney Sandefur scored four times in the first half as the Lady Pirates defeated home standing Garrard County 7-1 Monday night.

Garrard's Taylor Holman gave the Lady Lions a 1-0 lead just 8 1/2 minutes into the game on a nice break-away goal before Sandefur's four goals that all came as a result of a Garrard foul or mistake.

She tied the game on a direct kick 13 minutes in and picked up three more goals on a pair of penalty kicks and another direct kick in the final 10 minutes of the half.

"We were unlucky," Garrard coach Andy Floyd said. "The momentum was going our way and we just left it as soon as we got ahold of it. A couple of players made mistakes you can't make."

Tanya Renzenbrink had a pair of goal in the second half and Taylor Powell added another for the Lady Pirates for the final margin.

The Lady Lions had a penalty kick chance with five seconds to play but Berea keeper Ashley Sizemore turned away Samantha Floyd's attempt.

"We ran out of gas in the second half," Floyd said. "We are learning. We just haven't been able to put a game together yet."

Berea (4-0) outshot Garrard (0-2) 30-14.

Garrard Wins 15-14

((From B - 1)

freshman cornerback Jaylen McPherson and Antonio Harvey fell on the ball for the Lions at their own 47 yard line.

From there the Lions mounted a scoring drive capped off by an 11 yard scoring pass from quarterback Billy Abney to tight end Jacob Simpson. Garrard had a first and goal at the Tiger three yard line after a Noah Williams run but Clay's Jacob Hyde, a University of Kentucky signee broke through to tackle Abney at the six yard line and an illegal substitution penalty set Garrard back to the 11.

Caudill ran in the two-point conversion to give the Lions an 8-6 lead with 7:09 remaining in the third quarter.

The score stayed that way until early in period four when Garrard freshman defensive back Slade Crutchfield stepped in front of a Clay County receiver to pick off Ryan Holland's pass and return it 35 yards for a touchdown. Caudill kicked what would prove to be a big extra point to put Garrard ahead 15-6 with 11:47 to play in the game.

Garrard held the Tigers on the ensuing possession and forced a punt but Garrard's Layne Cumby muffed the kick and Clay recovered at the Garrard 20 yard line.

The Tigers drove inside the Garrard five yard line but were turned away when the middle of the Garrard defense combined to stop Carr on a fourth and goal play from the three yard line.

After taking possession on its own three yard line Garrard gave the Tigers another opportunity when J.T. Lyon fumbled on second down and Clay's J.R. Gray recovered at the Garrard seven yard line.

This time Holland got the ball in the end zone on a one yard plunge and then hit Joey Dezarn with a two-point conversion pass to make the score 15-14 with 3:33 to play but the Garrard offense was able to run out the clock to preserve the victory.

With the defenses dominating the game, the Lions racked up only 183 total yards while Clay managed 222 total yards but 88 came on Carr's touchdown run.

"Our defense did an outstanding job all night long. Defense is definitely the reason we were fortunate enough to win this ball game," Scenters said.

The Golden Lions return to action this Saturday night against Anderson County in the Bob Allen Bowl at Danville. The game begins at 5:30 pm.

Anderson Will Be Tough Foe

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

Garrard County will face a tough opponent Saturday night when the Golden Lions meet Anderson County in the first game of the Bob Allen Bowl at Danville.

The Bearcats are coming off a season where they reached the state finals in Class 5A and while they lost 13 seniors from that team Anderson still has a lot of talent around.

The Bearcats suffered a tough 41-34 loss last week to Lexington Bryan Station when the Defenders scored on a pass play in the final minute.

Sophomore quarterback

Zach Carmichael takes over for his brother Seth Carmichael who led the Bearcats last season. He has been slowed by mono but played well against Bryan Station and threw four touchdown passes and ran for another. All four TD passes were to junior Russ Cox, including one that gave Anderson a late 34-33 lead. Sophomore Dusty Puckett and senior Austin Hall are also targets.

Granville Hayes can also play quarterback and is the Bearcats leading returning rusher from his running back spot. The Bearcats are deep at the running back position. Chris Toomey, Huston Page and Tristan Ashburn are all dependable and Cox can also play in the backfield.

Anderson coach Mark Peach thinks the line is his team's strength. Junior Crockett Cosby was expected to be the leader of the group but has been slowed by a medical problem. Juniors Darius Harvey and Landon Searcey are good.

The Bearcats, a Class 5A school, also have lots of depth with 65 players on the roster.

Garrard's defense turned in a great performance in last week's 15-14 win over Clay County and will need to repeat that again Friday night.

Garrard Volleyball Tops Berea

"We played pretty well. We seem to play to our competition," Garrard coach Dickie Gilbert. "We got to play a lot of people and we are still learning with every game.

The Lady Lion junior varsity swept Berea 21-4, 23-21.

Lady Lions Blanked By Pulaski

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

Garrard County's offensive woes continued Tuesday night at home with a 7-0 loss to Pulaski County (1-1).

The Lady Maroons Kennedy McAlpin scored three times in the first 11 minutes of the game and Nor Alkabandi and Keisha Guffey scored to put Pulaski up 5-0 at the break.

McKenzie Cooper and

Keisha Guffey scored in the second half for the Lady Maroons.

Garrard (0-3) had only two shots on goal in the game while Pulaski challenged Garrard keeper Kendra Rich 33 times.

Garrard and Pulaski played to a 1-1 tie in the junior varsity game.

Madysen Thomas had the Lady Lion goal.

Garrard Boys Top Model

Lucas McCane led Garrard with a 44 followed by Collin Gay 45, Lincoln Gay 48, Cameron Carver 49, Nick Lark 49 and Caleb Harris 58. Model scores were unavailable.

Talking Sports

With Danny Elam

GARRARD FOOTBALL FACILITIES - Reportedly Garrard County will continue to play at Dyehouse Stadium for the foreseeable future if not forever. It looks like all the athletic facilities at the new high school are on hold or won't happen for a long time. This is not especially bad news for the football team. Dyehouse is an excellent place to play football. Home game Friday nights are a special event especially with the Lions playing well. The playing surface is as good as any around and they way the field sets down in a little valley makes it an awesome place to play. But there are some things that need to be done to the infrastructure. If there isn't going to be a field at the new school then some of that money saved needs to be used for new bleachers to replace the ones that have been there forever, along with a new press box. And it certainly wouldn't hurt to have a new scoreboard and goalposts. A new concession stand is also needed. With a little work Dyehouse Stadium would match any around. I'm anxious to see what happens.

NL CENTRAL - Jesse Goens wants to know why I haven't mentioned the Reds lately and how well they are playing. Jesse is right. The Reds are on one heck of a run. I have given up on my Cards catching them for the Central title. I was feeling good about a wildcard but it seems every time they look like they are going to make a run, they drop back. Still a lot of baseball to be played.

Lions Lose At Lincoln

By Danny Elam
delam@garrardcentralrecord.com

Garrard County dropped an 11-3 decision Monday night at Lincoln County to fall to 0-2 to start the season.

"They had a lot more experience than we have," Garrard coach Kevin Green said. "But we got something to build on."

The Patriots opened up a

5-0 lead before a Barry Rich goal for the Lions made the score 5-1 at the half.

Rich added another goal in the second half and Jesse Ray also scored for Garrard but the Lincoln lead was too much to overcome.

The Patriots won for the second time in as many starts.

Garrard open its home schedule Saturday against Southwestern at 11 am.

Hi Folks.

How about this wonderful weather? Husband is trying to catch up on all our mowing, especially the road fronts. Our garden has been nice. We gave up earlier because of the hot weather. Now we have a lot of tomatoes of which we both like. Husband likes tomato sandwiches with salad dressing.

We really miss the Olympics. We are sports lovers.

We both hate all of the elections going on. Our world is in a terrible situation. All of the accusations and the talk of beliefs in God is a very scary situation. God seems to be left out of Christian belief etc.

My niece Tanya Preston is at Cardinal Hill Hospital where she is being treated for a stroke. She has had a flake break off of her heart and found in her spleen. Thanks to all who are praying and thinking of her.

My sister-in-law O'Neva Ray had a cataract removed. She is doing great.

Carl Lane is really doing good. He is a very wonderful

Hello Readers.

Hope everyone had a good week. This is just about perfect weather for anything but we do need some rain. I guess God will send some when he seems fit and in his own time.

The tobacco seems to be doing good. Most of it is over your head.

I'm lost for words this week. I'm trying to get dinner ready at the store this morning. It's pork chops today with two veggies.

Gilead Church had a fish fry Sunday night. The men caught them all, some from a creek, some from the ocean. It was good and we enjoyed fellowship with each other.

Carroll Broadus passed away this past week. He was a deputy with the sheriff's department. I really like him for his friendliness. I send my love to his family.

We went to Garrard's first football game last Friday. They won by one point. There was a big crowd there. We took folding chairs and sat at the hedges of which I have hated them for a lot of years because I cannot see over them. I do not sit in the bleachers because of my back surgery.

More From Steve

Hello friends and neighbors on Nina Ridge and all other areas in and around Garrard who take the paper.

Went to the Kentucky State Fair this weekend. Took my son, his wife and mother and the baby. We all had a great time at the fair. Little Abby got to pet the cows and mules and also saw a lot of chickens, rabbits and goats. She is only 13 months old and can call them by name. She is smarter than average I think. Of course grandfathers can be partial.

After we left the fair we crossed the river and went over to Indiana to the big, huge, mega Bass Pro Shoppe. For around 30 years I guess I always looked forward to their big dream book catalog. It doesn't cost too much to dream. You have to work hard to make dreams

I watched the Olympics off and on. I salute those who did so well.

Congratulations to Garrard County for winning their first game of the season. Football is my favorite sport. I guess it's because I used to watch my brothers play.

School has started. I hope things will continue well. One or two schools are having problems.

We are saddened about the passing of Pastor Hill. He had been ill for a long time.

Lots of rabbits are in my backyard. They ate my flowers. They come late in the evening.

I understand that Americans are not eating enough fruits and vegetables. Maybe if we did not have to buy staples like, sugar, flour, butter, meal, detergent, eggs and lots more maybe we might have enough money to buy fruits and vegetables.

I am sorry about the grocery

Paint Lick News Katie Rollins	Homecoming At Paint Lick Christian
--	---

Good morning readers and what a beautiful Tuesday morning it is here in Paint Lick. The sun is shining it's brightest and the air is so very nice and cool.

This past Sunday was Homecoming at Paint Lick Christian Church and it was wonderful to see so many people to come and join us for services and the lunch that followed. Many, thanks to Hal Davis and Dora Bowles for helping with the last of the dishes and the clean-up of the small stuff, while my dear friends Janet Perry and Yvonne Davis so helpful in the clearing of the tables. We enjoyed having the many visitors like Rev. Jim Cox of Richmond who gave our Sunday blessings. Dan and Debbie Masden of Danville, Ruth McElven of Indiana, Ruth Hounshell, Elizabeth Noe and Rev. Don Graham of Kirksville Christian.

There were a lot of people there and it's likely that I've not mentioned them all but I did so enjoy the day. We did miss G.B. Shell and daughter Terry and their family. It was sure good to see Bob and Opal Baker and Anna back again.

The home and lot of the late Shannon and Betty Henderson will go for Auction this Thursday at 5:30 p.m. It is located off the Old Railroad on Crescent Hill Dr. about half mile from our Paint Lick Fire Dept. My dear friend Frances Lamb lived there for many years and I still miss her a lot.

"The Gathering" of all Paint Lick people will be on Thursday evening of Aug. 30. This is the time to get to know all the people who have come into our neighborhood in the past several years and it's to be held in the parking lot of the Paint Lick Community Arts Center(formerly the bank) ....thanks to Hal and Yvonne Davis for their part in keeping Paint Lick "stirred up" as they welcome everyone. You'll see the chairs everywhere... so make a date to stop by and see what it's all about.

Happy birthday to Sheila

Well, got to go out and work to get some tobacco topped.

Come out to Nina Ridge anytime and see us.

store. A lot of people told me they never thought one would come. The talk was nice. I would love to see a grocery store right in the middle of town. Most of the people who live near me live about four or five miles from a grocery in any direction. It would be nice to have a grocery store a little closer to us.

God intended for all of us to have a decent, happy life as much as we can. Sometimes it is hard. All we can do is try.

Next time you are in the health department pick up a pamphlet on aids. It is very important and read it. The disease is getting out of hand. I have grandkids and friends have grandkids and friends out there that need to know. We need straight talk.

I enjoy our minister, Dr. Briscoe. He gives straight talk from the Bible and continues until he is through. The Bible tells us exactly who we are.

Have a nice , safe holiday.

Overbey, today, to Coy "Dubie" Weldon on Saturday, to Jessica Jones and Emily Bray on Sunday and a big wish for Coy Burnam on Aug. 28. A wonderful anniversary wish for my son, Joe and his wife, Hope on Aug. 28. May God be with you all.

A reminder....the Paint Lick Family Clinic will be on vacation starting this Wednesday, Aug. 22 through Wednesday, Aug. 29 of next week. They will return for business on Thursday Aug. 30.... the "Gathering" day.

May God Bless.

An Encouraging Word

Life Can Be Good Is Good Medicine

By Howard Coop

Most grandparents, I have observed, are genuinely proud of their grandchildren, and they delight in telling others about the activities and accomplishments of their grandchildren. Two of our friends were no different. A grandson had done well in life, and they proudly shared information about his amazing success with us.

With high hopes and lofty aspirations, the young man, a native of a large northeastern city, graduated from college. It was not the best of times when he graduated. So, there was no job available for him. In that situation, he faced a bewildering dilemma: What is an ambitious young man, recently graduated from college, to do when no job is available?

Facing that situation, he was not discouraged, and he was willing to work. When he heard that someone was looking for an individual to clean a building, do some janitorial work, he applied and was offered the job. He gladly accepted it and did it well. In a short time, other similar opportunities became available, and he accepted them. In a very few weeks, the young man had more work than he could possibly do. So, he hired a friend to work with him. Work opportunities of the same type continued to become available, and additional employees were hired. As work opportunities continued to come his way, he realized the need to organize a company and incorporate it.

From the beginning, the company was successful, and it grew rapidly. Just after his thirtieth birthday, the successful young man, feeling that he had competent and dependable employees, left the company in their hands and moved to Arizona, a warmer climate, where he, according to the grandparents, "could enjoy life and play golf throughout the year. "

It is an obvious reality: Life doesn't always give us what we want, when we want it, and the way we want it. Nevertheless, life can be good if there is a genuine willingness to accept with gratitude, whatever is given, and work diligently to make the most out of it.

Gas Prices

- Average retail gasoline prices in Kentucky have fallen 4.0 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $3.67/g yesterday. This compares with the national average that has increased 2.1 cents per gallon in the last week to $3.70/g, according to gasoline price website KentuckyGasPrices.com.

Including the change in gas prices in Kentucky during the past week, prices yesterday were 21.0 cents per gallon higher than the same day one year ago and are 30.2 cents per gallon higher than a month ago. The national average has increased 21.9 cents per gallon during the last month and stands 11.8 cents per gallon higher than this day one year ago.

"The national average has finally begun to cool off after rising nearly every day since the start of July," said GasBuddy.com Senior Petroleum Analyst Patrick DeHaan. "As the West Coast and Great Lakes see refining issues in the rear view mirror, as well as the end of the summer driving season approaching, we may see a new downward pattern develop which could see average prices falling- especially after mid-September, a pattern that could dominate the gas pump until the holiday season," DeHaan said.

About KentuckyGasPrices.com

GasBuddy operates KentuckyGasPrices.com and over 250 similar websites that track gasoline prices at over 140,000 gasoline stations in the United States and Canada. In addition, GasBuddy offers a free smartphone app which has been downloaded over 20 million times to help motorists find gasoline prices in their area.

RICHMOND, Ky. – Ryan H. Hughes of the Lancaster Police Department was among the 27 law enforcement officers from 16 agencies across the state who graduated from basic training at the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training.

The 27 officers of Basic Training Class No. 435 completed 18 weeks of training, which consisted of more than 750 hours, recruit-level-officer academy instruction. Major training areas included homeland security, law offenses and procedures, vehicle operations, firearms, investigations, first aid/CPR, patrol procedures, orientation for new law enforcement families and mechanics of arrest, restraint and control.

Basic training is mandatory for Kentucky law enforcement officers who are required to comply with the state's Peace Officer Professional Standards Act of 1998. The Department of Criminal Justice Training provides basic training for city and county police officers, sheriffs' deputies, university police, airport police and others.

The Department of Criminal Justice Training is a state agency located on Eastern Kentucky University's campus. The agency is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies and was the first in the nation to be accredited under CALEA's public safety training program designation. In 2006, the academy also became the first law enforcement training academy in the nation to be named as a CALEA flagship agency.

The agency also provides in-service and leadership training for Kentucky law enforcement officers and telecommunications training.
